Chairman's Message....

New Year Greetings to all of you !!!

In the wake of new year, my greetings to all of you and wishes for a happy, loving and prosperous 2013.

Change is immitent and inevitable. There are always better ways to do things, higher ways to live. When a change happens willingly, the transition is undergone with excitement. This involves in being responsible, productive, and competent by choice. Smartness is to change before change becomes inevitable. Reward of any change is the change itself and the higher comforts of life that comes with it. Leaders are those who embrace change and make transition a pleasurable experience by accepting the responsibility of implementation. Let us change by inspiring ourselves to 'see the Light and keep passing on this Light'.

As the harvest festival sets in with colourful hues and kites flying high I wish all of you a Happy Makar Sankranthi. !!!

Chairman

Chairman's Message...

Greetings !!!!

Critical thinking is the art of analyzing and evaluating thinking with a view to improving it. Instead of accepting "at face value" what you read or hear, critical thinkers look for evidence and for good reasons for believing something to be true. This is at the heart of what it means to be a scientist, researcher, scholar or professional in any field. Whatever you are studying, critical thinking is the key to learning and to make progress.

Question words - "What, Who, Where, When, How and Why" will help the learner to get started; along with the phrases - "What if, What next, and So what". Attempting to answer these questions systematically helps to fulfill three vital functions for any serious study- Description, Analysis and Evaluation.

As Teachers and Parents, it is our responsibility to motivate, inspire and guide children to cultivate 'Critical Thinking'.

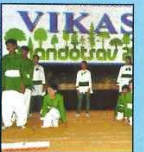

As a well cultivated 'Critical Thinker', children will raise vital questions, formulating them clearly and precisely, will gather and assess relevant information and interpret it effectively, will come to well-reasoned conclusions and solutions, will think openmindedly with alternative systems of thought and communicate effectively with others in figuring out solutions to complex problems. This entails 'Effective Communication and Problem Solving Abilities' which is indeed the need of the hour.

'The Holistic Approach', at Vikas-The Concept School, is not only catering to this but also is making learning interesting and meaningful for learners. 'Critical Thinking' takes place in various disciplines and learning to think outside the box has become a 'Habit'.

Wishing all of you a wonderful vacation!!!!
